WOMEN IN AVIATION

June 30, 1953
 [H. Con. Res. 92]

Whereas the year 1953 is the fiftieth anniversary year of the first successful controlled powered flight by Wilbur and Orville Wright in a heavier-than-air craft at Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, on December 17, 1903; and

Whereas, in the fifty years which have passed since that great event, the women of America have made substantial contribution to the development of aviation; and

Whereas the women of America now are assuming an increasingly important role in the field of aviation; and

Whereas the many opportunities which exist for women in the field of aviation are constantly increasing; and

Whereas the organization of women pilots generally known as the "Ninety-Nines, Incorporated" symbolizes the participation of women in the development of aviation; and

Whereas, in tribute to the accomplishment of Wilbur and Orville Wright and to the swift progress which has been made in the field of aviation in the past fifty years, such organization has sponsored a transcontinental air race on July 3, 1953, from Lawrence, Massachusetts, to Long Beach, California, in which more than fifty women pilots will participate; and

Whereas such transcontinental air race is the first east-west flight competition by resourceful and courageous women who are following the great tradition of Amelia Earhart; and

Whereas such transcontinental air race in the year of the fiftieth anniversary of the first successful controlled powered flight symbolizes the important role of women in the field of aviation: Now, therefore, be it

Esteem of Congress, etc.

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That, in this fiftieth anniversary year of the first successful controlled powered flight in heavier-than-air craft by Wilbur and Orville Wright, at Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, on December 17, 1903, the Congress hereby—

(1) expresses its high esteem of and great regard for the important part played by women in the development of aviation in the past fifty years;

(2) expresses the hope that women will continue to take an increasingly important part in the field of aviation in the future; and

(3) extends its best wishes for the success of the first east-west transcontinental air race on July 3, 1953, from Lawrence, Massachusetts, to Long Beach, California, under the sponsorship of the organization of women pilots generally known as the "Ninety-Nines, Incorporated", in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the first successful controlled powered flight in heavier-than-air craft.
